Are you passionate about igniting young minds and fostering innovation? Takapuna Normal Intermediate School, a vibrant intermediate school in the heart of Auckland's North Shore, seeks a fixed-term full-time, dedicated, and enthusiastic materials technology teacher to join our specialist team. This position may become permanent when position commences. About the role

:In this exciting role, you will play a key part in our developing Specialist teaching department, inspiring students in Y7 and 8 to explore the fascinating world of materials technology. You'll develop engaging and hands-on lessons introducing students to various materials, their properties, and how they can be used to design and create functional and innovative products. Key responsibilities: Develop and deliver creative and curriculum-aligned materials technology programs for Y7 and 8. Integrate Te Ao Māori and sustainability principles into your teaching. Provide safe and effective instruction in using tools and equipment within the materials technology workshops. Foster a positive learning environment that encourages critical thinking, problem-solving, and collaboration. Build strong relationships with students, parents, and whānau. Contribute to the ongoing development of the specialist curriculum at TNIS. We are looking for someone who

: Possesses a relevant teaching qualification in materials technology or a closely related field. Has experience teaching materials technology or a similar subject at the intermediate level. Demonstrates a strong understanding of child development and effective teaching methodologies. Is passionate about fostering creativity, innovation, and problem-solving in students. Enjoys working collaboratively with colleagues and whānau. Has excellent communication, interpersonal, and organisational skills. We offer

: A supportive and collaborative working environment. The opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of young learners. Generous release and planning time through our 6-day timetable. MU or RRR's, Leadership opportunities are available for the right person. How to apply
